McDOUGALL THE MAN FOR MAYOR

Enthusiastic Meeting in East Edmonton
Men—Candidates
Speak Ecologically of Him

The closing gun of the municipal campaign of 1907 was fired last night in Nester's hall, and the canvas man of the city's chief citizen had been most interesting one for the past week and a half, but last night's meeting in part of the hall was probably the most interesting of the brief but spirited campaign.

The hall was crowded to the doors, even standing room being scarcely available. The meeting was joined by Mr. Mc Dougall and his wife, and the East end candidates, but all the prospective aldermen were present with the exception of Messrs. Bell & Woods.

Mr. McDougall Scores.

The meeting was a success for Mr. McDougall and indications are that he will be voted in as the East end man to represent the city at the next election.

It seems that so many candidates for alderman speak so forcibly for a party cause that it is difficult to listen to them.

Mr. McDougall's speech was ecological, and he made it better than any other candidate's speech.

There was a great deal of interest in the campaign of Mr. McDougall, and he was elected to the city council.

Maladministration Exposed.

The meeting was a general point of interest to the citizens, who are deeply suspicious of the way in which public funds have been forthcoming.

Other points made by the various speakers were as follows:

The economy some as large as $20,000, of which no detailed statements are given by the city administration, expenditures of public money, the necessity of honest accounting, the need of the general management of the civic authorities.

"If the city is run by business men, the business is run," said one of the most successful of Edmonton's citizens at the meeting, and he would not be asked to contribute a cent a year or two.

The fair was opened by Wm. Shew, who made an ideal chairman and gave general satisfaction to the audience.

in the midst of a rich agricultural land.

Good Government Needed.

Edmonton needed good government in this time of her growth. He urged the people to elect him to the city council.

All his interests were tied up in the city, and if elected he would do his best for the administration of the city.

Speaking of the character of Mr. Wilson, he said: "I am in full sympathy with him, and had afterwards opposed him, he explained the circumstances to his friend since that time and was now supporting him.

Speaking of the city he said that in that year the assessment was reduced from five to four mill, and the tax rate from five mills to three mills.

At that time, too, he had also sold his home, and had to move into a house on the Saskatchewa bridge, in closing, Mr. McDougall said: "I am speaking of the character of Mr. Wilson, and the other candidates, but all the prospective aldermen were present with the exception of Messrs. Bell & Woods."

Mr. Fraser Speaks.

Mr. Fraser's speech was in favor of giving all possible assistance to interested parties.

His work could be carried on more cheaply by contract.

If he had carried on the work he would give a square deal to every part of the city.

Mr. Lane's End Park Question.

Dr. Lane, in one of the most amusing speeches of the evening, said he will not be able to tell what was for the good of Edmonton as a whole.

He would not be able to tell what was for the good of the city at large.

He would not be able to tell what was for the good of the city for the past three years?

AT THE THEATRE

"ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME."

The comedy of the above name will be produced by a company of Edmonton amateurs at the Edmonton Opera House on Saturday evening, Dec. 7, 1907. Dress rehearsal and no pains will be spared to make it an artistic success. The comedy was written by William Gillette and had a run of fifteen weeks in London, England, and in New York. The City of Edmonton is one of the cleverest ever written, and as all the characters of the present are well known, the audience, for their parts, should be one of the theatrical events of the season.

VIRGINIAN WELL PLAYED.

The Fanning-Howard Theatre Company gave a two weeks' engagement in the city at the Edmonton Opera House on Saturday evening, Dec. 7, chosen for an opening night. The Virginian, a dramaticomedy of Owen Wister's realistic penmanship, is under the wide roof of Wyoming, is a popular play with eastern and western audiences. Though the play has been given in the city of Edmonton during the last year and a half, its popularity was proved again by the many who turned out to see it last night. The play has plenty of energy and action, which was well brought out by the cast, especially in the first act. As the plot develops the energy becomes more turbulent, the action slower and more intense. The play is a picture of Texas in the last act. The players apparently realized this idea and expounded it well.

The acting throughout was natural and characterized by the simple plausibility of the scenes. Jessie Lee Tracy, who divided the honors with Frank Fanning as the Virginian, Trampas had the wild abandon of the cowboy, and was well supported by Gladys and heated by hot whisky.

Mr. Fanning was especially clear and forceful in his delivery of the dialogue, however, in parting with Steve had a large measure of truthfulness as a piece of art, as he played it to perfection. The expression of moisture in the eyes of several of the audience. Mrs. Howard's role was striking too, and her support which made it difficult for her to give proportionate development to her interesting and varied parts. A real touch of wholesome commonplaceness was added by Miss Pauline Allyn and Miss Clara Doyle.

Tonight the Virginian will be repeated.

M'DUGGAL THE MAN FOR MAYOR.

Alderman Mansons Defense.

Alderman Mansons, apparently the only defender of the present administration, was in considerable warmth. "He said he was glad now that he was not told to speak before the change of guard, etc., that he had heard tonight, in order if requested that he might be on hand to take care of these changes." He took up the Brenton east end park charge, that a $500 fine was imposed on him in the purchase of an east end park. He was chairman of the parks committee when the fine was imposed, and he said that $175 an acre was the least for which the property could be purchased, and that there were 100 acres that must have gone to the J. H. Morris Co. or the Brenton Co. He would rather be asked to resign, as it would bring a section of the community into a sedentary feeling than be elected an alderman. With reference to the town hall fronting on the east end he knew nothing. At the present time any leaseholder could have a vote. On this point he was in full agreement with his colleague who substantiated what he had said.

Dr. McInnis was the last of the candidates to speak. Following the lines of several of the other speakers, he said that the administration of the country was the best in the world today. He had a closer knowledge of the town hall than any other man in Edmonton. He had travelled the country from end to end, and had recently completed a trip of 2,400 miles on horseback. Believing, as he did, that Mansons was the best man for the important future, he would be a coward if he did not put his shoulder to the wheel and do what he could for the city.

Mr. Brenton's Charge.

John Brenton, being insistently called upon by the audience to give further details of the sale of the east end park, and as the suspicion of graft had been raised, spoke some length in explanation of the transaction.

"If I had been listened to," he said, "the city would have been saved $5,000."

Alderman Mansons: "Who got the money?"

Mr. Brenton: "That's what I want to know." (Cheers.)

Mr. Mansons Vindicated.

Mr. Short intercalated the assertion that with reference to the east end park that he could not say there was any graft that Mr. Mansons had not noted.

Editor: "Can you say if any of the aldermen did?"

Mr. Short: "I cannot say as to that; but I know that Mr. Mansons got none."

Mr. Brenton: "Being called upon to speak briefly, I will say that the charge of sectionalism and said he and his associates stood for a united city. In closing I wish to express my thanks to The Bulletin and The Journal for their excellent reports of the east end meeting, and to Mr. Mansons for his ability in presiding. This was magnificently carried and the meeting adjourned."

Arthur Neil Sonnenberg.

Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Dec. 6.—Arthur Neil, railway mail carrier on the Prince Albert line, was sentenced by Mr. Justice Prendergast to five years in the penitentiary for opening and stealing contents from letters.

FROM DAY TO DAY

A DAY TO DAY
I heard a voice of ringing softly say,
Bear not thy yesterday into to-morrow.
Nor lead this week with last week's Lift all thy burdens, as they come
To weight the present with the by and by.
One stop and then another, take thy way.

Live day by day.

Why art thou heading toward the backward way?

One moment and another thou shall mount;

Why art thou every round the space to count?

The past mistakes if there must still remember,

Watch over the ashes of the dying winter,
Kindly thy hope. Put all thy fears away.

Live day by day.

Lady Harris.

WITH THE FARMERS

LECTURE ON POULTRY.

The Poultrymen's Association held a successful meeting last night in the council chamber. Geo. H. Hart, president of the ministry of agriculture, presided. The meeting was opened by the mayor of the city. The program consisted of demonstrations in the poultry yard, and dressing poultry for the market by Mr. Nicky of the Edinburgh Hill Company, and by members of the provincial department of agriculture. In the space of a very few minutes, a hen was killed, bled, plucked, trussed and presented to the audience ready for shipping. In the demonstration, Mr. Hart showed the modern manner of killing, by cutting the arteries in the neck of the bird. With this method, and by piercing the brain with a knife, a produce immediate death, and the bird is plucked, trussed and presented to the audience ready for shipping. The demonstration was a success.

ON THE COMPARED WITH THE EARLY YEARS OF THE C.R.P.

It is a very interesting comparison to make in the future. The east and west lines are under the same ownership and general management, but are now partners and not competitors of each other. It is intended that these lines should develop with the country's requirements in mind, so that I am sure the chain of an extensive transcontinental

That $5,000 should have been spent on the market value of the eggs from Montreal was not only unnecessary, but positively shameful.

Special Agent, U.S. Dept. of Agric.

Mr. Foley said he was opposed to a warm house for the hens. The warmth was apt to bring on an infestation which in turn produced dampness. He was most emphatically opposed, he said, to any such house in Canada, and would not recommend its use to any poultry growers.

FRIDAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, Dec. 6.—Cables were filed at 10 a.m. with the exception of Argentina, generally bullish in tone. Argentine news was favorable, and the market's upturn was rather a case of damming with faint praise, and that normally has been the case. The market for wheat seems to be a little ahead of time. All markets were strong, but rather dull, with the exception of London. The Winnipeg market was very strong in the morning. The market was very little port for Britain, but good demand from Britain, a lot of wheat was shipped there during the last few days. Winnipeg—May sold for $1.104, but closed at $1.094, while it was quoted from $1.094 to $1.104. July showed a drop of 10c. Coarse grains were down. There was some light rain in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, while oats were 30¢ lower than against 14¢ last year. Corn-tracks were higher.

American markets showed an advance of 5¢ for wheat, 5¢ for corn, 5¢ for oats, 5¢ for barley, 5¢ for May, 10¢ for a crop of 5¢ for June, 5¢ for July, and an advance of 5¢ to 5¢ for October. WILL MOVE TO WHEAT.

Duluth, Minn., Dec. 6.—The extension to the north of the Great Lakes in a clean up of the wheat stocks had been reduced to 1,345,000 bushels. The average price per bushel was moderate to-day, and from now on Minnesota will get the bulk of the northwestern wheat.

All the way by rail, from the Port of Montreal or by a road agreement with the American Northern Line from Wood Buffalo, both shorter by eighty miles than any other route.

Looking into the future and regarding the Canadian Northern Line as a project, the road has an entry into Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec, St. John and Halifax. Or in

SPORTING NEWS

KERR FOR THE J. C. A. C.

Hamilton, Dec. 6.—The report was again heard today that Bobbey Kerr, the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. sprinter, is about to move to Canada. Kerr is a favorite with the Irish Canadians. Kerr is the greatest short-distance man ever developed in Canada, and he is one of the best in the world. Kerr has been a resident of Hamilton for twenty-five years, coming there from England. Kerr is a spindled type of an athlete, being very tall and thin, but taking full advantage of his height, not lacking the taste of intoxicating liquor. He never uses tobacco in any form, and has a fondness for beer, which is shown in his race. Kerr has had a remarkable year in athletic circles, winning no less than 300 races, and setting a new mark in 100 yards. His only defeat during the year was at the Western Canadian Championships in Victoria, where Kerr was afterwards disqualified. Kerr has been invited to compete in the 1938 Commonwealth Games in 9.4 seconds, the last occasion before the 1936 Olympics, on the ground that he had been favored to win Kerr arrived in the city yesterday, and is quartered at the Grand Central Hotel. He is awaiting news from the Canadian connection with the matter last night. It is understood that he does not move to Canada, but becomes a member of the Hamilton branch of the Irish Canadians, and will compete for them at the next games.

If Kerr becomes a member he will round out the L.C.A.C. team to make it the strongest in Canada. The team will have all the "class" from the sprint to the long distance events, and the field will be strong. Kerr's present course is now on his way to America, and Con Walsh, of the Woodstock branch, is to accompany him. Kerr is a favorite to win the 100 yards, and the 1938 Commonwealth Games will be held in the fall.

It is decided that he does not move to Canada, but becomes a member of the Hamilton branch of the Irish Canadians, and will compete for them at the next games.

PEARL HOPKINS.

DRIVING CLUB TROPHY.

One of the handsomest shields in the country has just been finished by Jackson Bros. for Ed. Ortonson who will present it to the Edmonton Driving club after the 1938 season. The shield is made of silver and is set with diamonds. The shield is of dull silver mounted on a solid weathered oak panel above a light oak base. In the centre is an engraving of the immortal Dan Patch and starting at the apex of the shield are two sets of olive-leaf branches. Two gold whips interlaced with two sets of leather reins are mounted on the shield and a driving bit.

At the top of the shield is a scroll bearing the name of the donator and immediately underneath is a crest bearing the Coat of Arms of Edmonton. Then follow the names of the drivers. There are eleven engraved horse shoes in which will be engraved the names of the drivers. The shield is the last horse shown being dated 1918.

It is decidedly a work of art and the members of the club are to be congratulated upon the donation of such a handsome trophy.

SPORTING BREVITIES.

The undefeated pacing stallion, Direct Hit, 2½, 14, by Direct, 2½, and Beau Hall, 2½, by Beau, 2½, 15, the horse that Geers raced so successfully in the Grand Circuit a couple of years ago, has been sold to the stable of James Robb (Phesterwick) of Ithaca, N.Y., for $10,000.

M. C. C. Singer, the famous golfer, is dead at the age of 67. He was twenty-five years of age, and his greatest performances on the links was at Brookline last year, when he won the title of amateur champion, and was defeated by James Robb (Phesterwick).

Lots Grabbe, the owner of the champion trotting mare, Sonora Girl, has sold her to the stable of James Robb, his bid of $7,000 for the great Canadian pacing gelding, Angus Painter, 2½, 24, to the stable of James Robb (Phesterwick), hence the noted campaigner was not sold.

John Lipson and other famous foreign yachtsmen will be invited to America next year to sail for a cup to be presented by the New York Yacht Club.

Dickie Tamm, the famous jockey and millionaire, leads the hats in the official averages of the American Association, having a record of 200 to 200.

He has played twenty-two games, and his average was .383. He does not play for money, but for fun, but helps out his friend, Bill Arnstein, whenever the latter needs a man. In this way he has helped Arnstein.

Joe Peller, who three years ago was one of the leading lights in the saddle, is getting a large day. "Chico" was arrested at the Quaker Club in Brooklyn Yacht club. The race will be for horses similar to those suggested by the American's cup, which challenge was drawn by the New York yacht club.

No records were broken, but the time made by Fred Bellairs, of the New York Amateur Boxing Club, in 1936, remains unbroken. 41.42 seconds was only 2.5 of a second slower than the record he破了 for the event.

BOBBY WALTHOUR.

New York, Dec. 6.—Robert Walther, the famous bicyclist, who was born and raised in a racing family, near Hamilton, in September, injuries which it was thought at first would prove fatal, arrived home yesterday. Robert, son of the North German Lloyd line, accompanied by his wife and two children.

Walther will ride at Madison Square Garden against Louis Darragon, also a passenger on the liner, on December 10th, and will take part in the forthcoming six days' contests.

"Everything went all up with me," said Walther. "I don't remember a thing about the race at St. Paul. They told me afterward that the man who had been hit was the ancestor of a rider who had fallen was struck by the motorcycle of my partner and died, and that he died in bed." Walther was conscious for five days in a hospital, and when he began to get better, they told him that he was a blank from the night he took the race.

THE OTTAWA LINE UP.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Now that Tom Phillips has notified Ottawa he will not play here, this means Fred Taylor will be placed on left wing. The only position now available is right wing, and it will be made to bring out Bruce Stuart. Bruce has stated that he intends "not to let them catch me." He believes he can be induced to put on the skates again. The lead therefore, coming in, will be:

Goal—Leesman

Point—Pulford

Centre—Stuart

Centre—Stuart

Left wing—Taylor
